

Things Decidedly NEW

The Flower

that blooms in this bottle is the delightful idea of an imaginative maker of perfumes—Wald'Ys—to indicate the scent contained therein. He has imprisoned a rose and a violet, also, in this same manner. 3.95

Street Floor

The Picture Above

is of a young lady wearing her scarf in a way which makes us feel that next week at the latest we shall be doing the same. And we undoubtedly shall, for this smart square of pussy willow taffeta—hand-embroidered—has a metropolitan air that is decidedly "catchy". 9.00

Street Floor

Not Alone

because it is new, nor because of its clever case of silk moire, do we give special mention to this delicate Wald'Ys perfume, in jasmine, muguet, narcissus, rose of violet scent. We are intrigued, we must confess, with the thought that so much Parisian smartness may be obtained at. 1.95

Street Floor

We Are Told

that the rage for this ravishing smoking suit of Paisley patterned silk with black for contrast first appeared in England. Be that as it may, it certainly is an effective attire for lounging hours—and one that pays respects—through its design—to the lost masculinity of the art of smoking. 19.75

White Flannel

The girl who is wintering in the South, remembering the becomingness of the "Peter Toms" and flannel middies of her college days, wisely chooses for sportswear this smart new version in white flannel, the tailored "monogram" blouse. 11.75
